

<https://technogroup-egypt.com/job/quality-control-engineer/>

Quality Control Engineer

Description

- Review all the projects' specifications related to the scope of work.
- Inspection the executed works against the project specifications and quality control standards and procedures.
- Inspection of all the delivered materials to ensure that they completely match with the approved materials as well as the project specifications.
- Inspection and closing the Non-conformance report (NCR) Internal or those issued by the consultant.
- Participation in the preparation of the project method of statement, QC Procedures inspection and test plans according to the project Quality Plan.
- Checking and forwarding the daily inspection request to the client after carrying out the internal inspection.
- Co-ordination with the client's inspection team for final and approved inspections.
- Co-ordination with the specification engineers to arrange daily inspection program.
- Preparation of the daily inspection report and submit it to the SR QCE/Quality Control Manager.
- Checking and making sure that the work is executed in accordance with the latest approved drawings.
- Preparing check list for any discrepancies or non-conformance activities to follow up and submit it to the SR QCE/Quality Manager.
- Checking on Hold points.
- Issuing NCR whenever a non- conformance has been found.

Job Requirements

- Bachelor of Science in Biology, Chemistry, Chemical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Polymer Science (or related technical discipline) is preferred.
- Candidates with other relevant industry experience may be considered
- Understanding and application of statistical methods required.
- Practical understanding of equipment maintenance.
- Males Only.
- 5+ years Experience

Hiring organization

Technobit

Employment Type

Full-time

Job Location

Belbes, Sharqia

Date posted

4 August, 2022